RESOLUTIONS

Let us not doubt that God has a father's pity toward us, and in the removal of that which is dearest to us He is still loving and kind.

Death separates, but it also unites. It reunites whom it separates. Life is but a stage upon which we all have our parts to perform, and in the activity of life we forget the certainty of death.

We do not look upon death with fear and trembling, 'tis only for a short time when we too must lay this body down and then somewhere beyond the trackless fields of space, somewhere beyond the midnight of death, there exists a sweet and peaceful world where dwells the immortal spirits of the blest.

It is a great mission to live. It is a greater mission to have lived well; to have left an inheritance greater than gold, than gems of priceless worth; an inheritance of Friendship, Love and Truth. As our tears fall in loving memory of our Brother let us place garlands of immortals and laurels upon the tablets of our memory.

Green B. Bone, P. G., was initiated into this lodge on the 10th day of September, 1909. He was elected Vice Grand of the lodge for the term commencing Jan. 1, 1911, which he filled to the satisfaction of the lodge, and was elected Noble Grand for the term commencing July 1, 1911.

which important office he filled with ability. He has been active in the work of the lodge ever since.

He was taken with appendicitis on Aug. 11, and on the 24th of August was operated on for the same. On the 11th of September, in the early morning, he sank to eternal rest and on the evening of the 12th we laid our brother in his quiet tomb, there to rest until consummation of all things. May our Brother rest in peace! We shall long miss him from our council.

Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now our brother sleeping.

As a token of respect for our departed brother, a page in our records shall be set apart for this testimonial, and the Charter of the Lodge shall be draped in mourning for thirty days.

J. W. Brashears
J. T. Blaney

Committee.

Unanimously adopted by the Lodge this 20th day of September, 1912.

Attest:
James E. Wash,
Secretary.

James M. Wood,
Noble Grand

Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.
